

---

2007
Greater Montana Foundation
Grant Recipients

---

Artemis Common Ground

To obtain copies of Home Ground contact Carmine Mobray at clarity@cyberport.net
Home Ground Radio, hosted by Brian Kahn, is a weekly thirty-minute radio conversation with community leaders that assist Montanans in forming their own views about issues that determine their future.

Behind the Vault Door, LLC

This program is not yet completed.
Behind the Vault Door, the television series will highlight art from Montana's museums.

Montana Broadcasters Association

For more information about the awards go to www.mtbroadcasters.org/awards.phtml
EB Craney Awards, named after Greater Montana Foundation's founder, Ed Craney, award talent in local news whether it be production or promotion.

Montana Historical Society

For more information about the MHS visit <http://montanahistoricalsociety.org>
Craney Studio, this studio is still in the planning process and will be a part of the new Historical Society building.

Montana PBS

To obtain copies of the following programs visit www.montanapbs.org/Shop
11th and Grant with Eric Funk is an ongoing television series hosted by composer Eric Funk that will spotlight local Montana music.

In Without Knocking, a television premier will follow the legendary Montana Mission Mountain Wood Band's path to fame.

Montana Focus is an ongoing news and current events program hosted by Gene Brodeur.

THE WAR: Montana Stories is a supplemental program to the national program, THE WAR, featuring a Montana perspective on WWII.

Wolves in Paradise documentary explores the animal and human interaction around Yellowstone Park.

Montana State University

To obtain copies of the following program contact mudturtlemedia@gmail.com.

Eureka! A New Vision of Nature will follow a natural history camp for visually impaired children in Whitefish, Montana.

For information regarding the scholarship contact the MSU Theatre Arts Department.

Galusha Scholarship is awarded to students at Montana State University who are majoring in a media broadcast related field.

University of Montana Radio and Television Department

To obtain copies of the following programs call 406.243.4011.

Business: Made in Montana features businesses in Big Sky country that create products that are sent around the state, the region and the world.

Grandstreet Theatre Student Documentary produced by graduate student Kimberly Cosgrove, this documentary explores the summer camp at Helena's renowned theatre.

Montana Journal features news about Montana for Montanans.

Student Documentary Unit is a capstone class for Radio-Television students at the University of Montana, in which the students shoot, write and edit a program of choice.

Summer Internship Program awards stipends to University of Montana Journalism students interning in Montana.

University of Montana Broadcast Media Center

To obtain copies of the following programs visit www.montanapbs.org/Shop

Backroads of Montana, the series, has traveled across Montana and visited its unique people and places.

Champions of the World, a documentary on the 1904 Indian Girls' Basketball Team from Fort Shaw who attended the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair and were proclaimed the world champions.

King of the Continent is a documentary on the 1967 grizzly bear maulings in Glacier National Park that changed bear management techniques.

Write Question is a weekly radio program that features writers from Montana and the literary elements of their work.